

Denise Roy

Denise has been involved as an instructor and previous Chair/Co-Chair of the program for more than 15 years.

Prior to her employment at MacEwan, she worked for the provincial government in Manitoba and was the founding Administrative Director of Edmonton's Catalyst Theatre.

Lobbying for increased support for the arts is her passion - in this capacity, she has a long list of volunteer achievements including serving on the Provincial Growth Summit, the Mayor's Task Force on Investment on the Arts, the Parks, Recreation and Cultural Advisory Board, the Edmonton Arts Council and the Edmonton Professional Arts Council.

Most of her efforts in the past few years have been through the Canadian Conference of the Arts in her role as President /Past President of the Board of Governors.

In 2006, she was inducted into the City of Edmonton Cultural Hall of Fame.

Denise has a Masters degree in Adult Education and is the Acting Dean of the Centre for the Arts and Communications.
