Course Description

PSYC-105
Individual and Social Behaviour

3 Credits (45:0:0 hours)

This course is an introduction to the study of human development, personality, social behaviour, abnormality and individual differences. In conjunction with PSYC 104, it provides a full year introduction to psychology.

Prerequisites: Minimum grade of C- in PSYC 104.

Remember, find the Academic Calendar online at www.MacEwan.ca/calendar