MacEwan University set for Fall Convocation Ceremonies

Edmonton – MacEwan University will award credentials to more than 800 individuals who will graduate from its degree, certificate and diploma programs during two convocation ceremonies at Edmonton’s Winspear Centre on November 18.

Both ceremonies will feature a student address from President’s Medal recipient, Sahiba Pahwa (Bachelor of Science, Biological Sciences, 2025), who is graduating with distinction. There will also be performances by Kim Buffalo and Jocelyn White, who will be accompanied by an Indigenous drum group. Tom Snow and Daphne Alexis, Indigenous Knowledge Keepers, will present the Indigenous Invocation.

These graduates join the more than 93,000 MacEwan alumni who have gone on to contribute to Alberta’s economic and social growth. MacEwan’s graduates are in demand and MacEwan will continue to grow in order to play a significant role in the province’s economic recovery.
