MacEwan University set for Fall Convocation Ceremonies

Edmonton – MacEwan University will award credentials to more than 700 individuals who will graduate from its degree, certificate and diploma programs during two Fall Convocation Ceremonies at Edmonton’s Winspear Centre on November 13.

Both ceremonies will feature a student address from President’s Medal recipient, Samantha Jolene Dancey (Honours Biological Sciences, 2024), who is graduating with distinction. There will also be performances by Chayla Delorme and Kim Buffalo, who will be accompanied by an Indigenous drum group. George Desjarlais, an Indigenous Knowledge Keeper, will present the Indigenous Invocation.

These graduates join the more than 88,000 MacEwan alumni who have gone on to contribute to Alberta’s economic and social growth. MacEwan’s graduates are in demand and MacEwan will continue to grow in order to play a significant role in the province’s economic recovery.
