MacEwan University's Mitchell Art Gallery hosts the ArtBus supporting downtown galleries

Edmonton - Everyone is invited to hop on the ArtBus to visit artist-run and gallery spaces in downtown Edmonton on Saturday, November 25 from 1 - 5 p.m.

People taking part can check out exhibitions, meet artists, shop for art and participate in all-ages art activities.

The ArtBus route is a continuous loop of two buses chartered by Edmonton Transit Services (ETS) with frequent stops at a variety of galleries to connect people with the vibrant downtown art scene.

In addition to the Mitchell Art Gallery, the ArtBus will also be making stops at Harcourt House, Society of Northern Alberta Print-artists \(SNAP\), Alberta Craft Council, Latitude 53, Art Gallery of Alberta \(AGA\), Edmonton Arts Council Shop & Services and Ociciwan Contemporary Art Centre.

If you're working on your holiday shopping, ArtBus is the perfect opportunity to shop local while hopping from one gallery to another. ArtBus participants will also have access to discounts and promotions during the event.

The event is free to attend and no RSVP is required. Light refreshments will be served at the Mitchell Art Gallery at MacEwan University, Harcourt House and Ociciwan Contemporary Art Centre..

This project is supported by the Meet Me Downtown Grant
