

Monday, November 21, 2022

MacEwan University set for fall convocation ceremonies

Edmonton – MacEwan University will award credentials to more than 680 individuals who will graduate from its degree, certificate and diploma programs as part of two fall convocation ceremonies at Edmonton's Winspear Centre on November 22.

Both ceremonies will feature a student address from President's Medal recipient, Fattima Abdelwahab Deiab, (Bachelor of Science, 2022) as well as musical performances by Brianna Lizotte, accompanied by Justin Smith (Bachelor of Music, 2022), and the MacEwan University Big Band. Daphne Alexis, an Indigenous Knowledge Keeper, will present the Indigenous Invocation.

These graduates join the more than 84,000 MacEwan alumni who have gone on to contribute to Alberta's economic and social growth. Our graduates are in demand and MacEwan will continue to grow in order to play a significant role in the province's economic recovery.

Details of the Fall Convocation Ceremonies:

Tuesday, November 22, 9:30 a.m.

Faculty of Arts and Science

Faculty of Health and Community Studies

Faculty of Nursing

Convocation address - Keith King, Distinguished Alumni Award Recipient

Tuesday, November 22, 2:30 p.m.

School of Business

Faculty of Fine Arts and Communications

School of Continuing Education

Convocation address - Jackie Rae Greening, Honorary Doctorate Recipient

More information about the 2022 MacEwan honorary doctorate recipients can be found here:

Nobel Prize laureate and Canadian country music industry builder are MacEwan University honorary doctorate recipients - MacEwan University

For more information, please contact archerj24@macewan.ca