

Tuesday, November 14, 2023

MacEwan University set for fall convocation ceremonies

Edmonton – MacEwan University will award credentials to more than 650 individuals who will graduate from its degree, certificate and diploma programs as part of two fall convocation ceremonies at Edmonton's Winspear Centre on November 14.

Both ceremonies will feature a student address from President's Medal recipient, Abhijeet Singh (Bachelor of Commerce, 2023) as well as musical performances by Dalen Cardinal and Simone Desjarlais accompanied by a drum group. George Desjarlais, an Indigenous Knowledge Keeper, will present the Indigenous Invocation.

These graduates join the more than 87,000 MacEwan alumni who have gone on to contribute to Alberta's economic and social growth. Our graduates are in demand and MacEwan will continue to grow in order to play a significant role in the province's economic recovery.

Details of the Fall Convocation Ceremonies:

Tuesday, November 14, 9:30 a.m.

Faculty of Arts and Science

Faculty of Nursing

School of Continuing Education

Convocation address - Jacqueline Koughan, Distinguished Alumni Award recipient

Tuesday, November 14, 2:30 p.m.

School of Business

Faculty of Health and Community Studies

Faculty of Fine Arts and Communications

Convocation address - AJA Loudon, Distinguished Alumni Award recipient

More information about the 2023 MacEwan fall convocation ceremonies can be found here:

Ceremony - MacEwan University

For more information, please contact archerj24@macewan.ca

Founded in 1971, MacEwan University inspires its students with a powerful combination of academic excellence and personal learning experiences. Offering more than 90 programs including undergraduate degrees, applied degrees, diplomas, certificates, continuing education and corporate training, the university provides a transformative education in a creative, collaborative and supportive learning environment where creativity and innovation thrive. Located in Edmonton, Alberta Canada, MacEwan University offers a unique student experience that opens up diverse pathways for achievement and growth.