PHOTO CALL: The Crucible

MacEwan's intimate Theatre Lab puts the audience in the jury box as the paranoia of the Salem witch trials unfolds in Arthur Miller's The Crucible. Written against the backdrop of 1950's McCarthy era Communist scare, Miller's award-winning play continues to provide reflection and relevance in tenuous political times.

The Theatre Department at MacEwan University will hold a PHOTO CALL for the production of The Crucible on Tuesday, January 28, 2020, between 12 - 1:30 p.m.

Capture stills and footage with cast members.

Interview director Jim Guedo and main cast members Evan Makowecki, Maya Baker and Abigail Laforst on site.

Theatre Lab (Room 11-240), Allard Hall (11110-104 Avenue)

This production runs from January 29 - February 8, 2020.

Department of Theatre at MacEwan University

Over more than 30 years, and MacEwan's Theatre Arts and Theatre Production programs have earned a reputation for producing passionate professionals who bring the excitement and beauty of theatre to life.

Theatre Arts is a stimulating, intensive actor-training program for people who love the energy of being in front of, and connecting with, an audience. Theatre Production provides creative inventors with opportunities to explore and see their ideas come to life on the stage.
