

Call for Applications: 2023 Gene Zwozdesky Artist in Residence Program

The Faculty of Fine Arts and Communication and the Ukrainian Resource and Development Centre of MacEwan University are announcing a Call for Applications for the 2023 Gene Zwozdesky Artist in Residence Program.

The program will honour the life of the Ukrainian community leader and arts champion Gene Zwozdesky. With the purpose of inspiring meaningful conversations through interdisciplinarity and diverse media, the Program will broaden MacEwan University's and the wider community's experience and advance Ukrainian arts. Funding has been generously provided by the Ukrainian Foundation for College Education (UFCE) and the Faculty of Fine Arts and Communications.

The residency will be awarded for a period of up to four months, starting in September 2023. The residency period will be mutually decided by the artist and the committee.

The discipline for 2023 is Visual Arts. Application Deadline: April 30, 2023.

Eligibility criteria:

- The residency is open to international artists, including emerging, mid-career, or established professionals.
- Any artist who identifies as having Ukrainian citizenship, history, or heritage is invited to apply.
- We will accept applications from collectives; however, the grant amount is fixed.
- This year's applications are restricted to those based in Visual Arts.

The Artist in Residence will receive the following:

- A grant in the amount of $15,000, plus the cost of travel and accommodation, to serve as the Gene Zwozdesky Artist in Residence at MacEwan University.

