

Anna Pidruchney Memorial Award

Information Sheet

Background

Anna (nee Raycheba) Pidruchney was an Alberta homesteader, community activist, artist, and author of two books about Ukrainian Canadian pioneer life. She taught numerous writing classes in both the Ukrainian and English languages and had a special interest in young people. The Award's purpose is the advancement of the University's goals, and in particular for the following purposes: Supporting MacEwan University students and alumni.

Value: $1,300; 2 awards available

Conditions

To be eligible for this award applicants must:

- Be of Ukrainian Heritage.
- This award is open to MacEwan students and alumni. Previous recipients of this award are not eligible.
- Submissions will be accepted in either Ukrainian or English.
- Preference will be given to Fine Arts & Communication or Arts and Science students at MacEwan University.
- Only one submission per applicant.

Chosen By

Selection Committee

Application documents

- Submit a piece of creative work (creative writing, painting, sculpture, music, etc).
- Submit a written statement (250 to 500 words) outlining the applicant's course of study, Ukrainian heritage and career aspirations, as well as a description of, and rationale for, the creative work submitted.

Email the application document package to urdc@macewan.ca. Only one entry per applicant is allowed.

Application Deadline

November 30

Award recipient to be announced in the spring.

Submissions must reach URDC on or before the deadline date.

Contact

Tel: 780-497-5494

Ukrainian Resource and Development Centre
MacEwan University
PO Box 1796, Edmonton, Alberta T5J 2P2

Ukrainian Resource and Development Centre
MacEwan University