Faculty of Health and Community Studies Council Bylaws

1.0 Purpose and Rationale

1.1. The Faculty of Health and Community Studies Council (Faculty Council) is the academic governance body of the Faculty of Health and Community Studies, permitting faculty members to exercise self-governance in academic matters. The purpose of Faculty Council is primarily to foster discussion, share information, approve recommendations from its committees and make recommendations as appropriate.

1.2. The decisions and recommendations of Faculty Council shall be consistent with the philosophies of a learner-centred education, academic excellence, and a participatory decision-making organizational culture, in the tradition of faculty-led academic governance.

1.3. These Bylaws have been prepared to provide structure and set out the rules of proceedings of Faculty Council.

2.0 Definitions
