January 24, 2013

Family Literacy Carnival at MacEwan University

Edmonton—MacEwan University is proud to host the Family Literacy Carnival to discover the fun of reading. Seven creative and interactive themed centres will lead your family to explore music, the Edmonton of yesterday, today’s pop culture and technology, science, story, health and numbers.

The carnival is in celebration of National Family Literacy Day, is hosted by the students of MacEwan University chapter of the Golden Key International Honour Society in collaboration with the Centre for Family Literacy, which focuses on developing literacy within the context of family and community.

Date: Sunday, January 27
Time: 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Where: Robbins Health Learning Centre (104 avenue & 109 street)
City Centre Campus

Founded in 1971, MacEwan University is a comprehensive university offering more than 60 programs including undergraduate degrees, applied degrees, diplomas, certificates, continuing education and corporate training. Its philosophy of inspiring minds, providing career opportunities and opening the doors to academic excellence, continues to be its guide as it serves the educational needs of students across Alberta, Canada and the world.