October 26, 2012

MacEwan University ranked high among students

Edmonton—The Globe and Mail released its annual “Canadian University Report” and MacEwan University was among the highest ranked in the ‘Small University’ category, between 4,000 and 10,000 students.

“Everyone at MacEwan University feels it is important to provide an environment that leads to student success,” said David Atkinson, President, MacEwan University. “We strive to ensure every student has the best learning experience possible.”

Of the 19 categories, MacEwan University received 9 A’s and 10 B’s. In the most important category, Most Satisfied Students, MacEwan University is ranked first place out of 16 universities across Canada. In total MacEwan University received six first place rankings, including:

- Student/Faculty Interaction
- Instructors’ Teaching Style
- Quality of Teaching and Learning
- Class Size
- Buildings and Facilities

MacEwan University also received A’s in the categories for Libraries, Campus Atmosphere, and Recreation and Athletics.

Founded in 1971, MacEwan University is a comprehensive university offering more than 60 programs including undergraduate degrees, applied degrees, diplomas, certificates, continuing education and corporate training. Its philosophy of inspiring minds, providing career opportunities and opening the doors to academic excellence, continues to be its guide as it serves the educational needs of students across Alberta, Canada and the world.