January 13, 2014

Dressed for success:
Kingsway Mall Style Council to provide fashion tips for students

Edmonton—The Career Services team at MacEwan University have put together a unique event to help students understand the importance of dressing for success. With the help of the Kingsway Mall Style Council, the event will demonstrate to students the concept of business casual. The Style Council will share tips on how to reuse clothing pieces from a student wardrobe to achieve a professional look.

“This event is for all students, not just the ones who may be graduating this spring,” said Karly Gerlach, employer relations specialist at MacEwan University. “Our students work very hard during the academic year to focus on their grades, and that is important, but sometimes they don’t think about how to project themselves once they enter the workforce,” added Gerlach.

Several merchants from Kingsway Mall will be providing clothing for the event, including Dynamite, H&M, and RW&Co.

When: Wednesday, January 15
Time: 12:30 – 1:00 p.m.
Where: City Centre Campus, Main Foyer, Building Six

Founded in 1971, MacEwan University inspires its students with a powerful combination of academic excellence and personal learning experiences. Offering more than 65 programs including undergraduate degrees, applied degrees, diplomas, certificates, continuing education and corporate training, the university provides a transformative education in a creative, collaborative and supportive learning environment where creativity and innovation thrive. Located in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, MacEwan University offers a unique student experience that opens up diverse pathways for achievement and growth.

For further information, please contact:
David Beharry, Media Relations Advisor
780 497-5586
Cell: 780-231-5954
email: beharryd@macewan.ca