MacEwan University’s 2018/19 Theatre Season features three exceptional productions

Edmonton – The Faculty of Fine Arts and Communications at MacEwan University is gearing up for an exciting season featuring three timeless classics: 9 to 5 (Triffo Theatre, November 28 - December 8), A Midsummer Night’s Dream (Theatre Lab, January 30 - February 9), and Guys and Dolls (Triffo Theatre, March 20 - 30).

9 to 5 is based on the seminal 1980’s hit movie of the same name and set in the late 1970’s, this is a hilarious story of friendship and revenge. Pushed to the limit, Violet, Judy and Doralee concoct a plan to get even with the sexist, egotistical, lying, hypocritical bigot that they call their boss. 9 to 5 will be performed in the 419-seat Triffo Theatre in Allard Hall.

A Midsummer Night’s Dream is one of Shakespeare’s most beloved comedies. With misapplied love potions, mistaken identities and the most famous play-within-a-play ever written. Shakespeare stirs up the perfect recipe for mirth. A Midsummer Night’s Dream will be performed in the Theatre Lab in Allard Hall.

Guys and Dolls is set in New York City and is the tale of a couple of big city gamblers and the women who love them. High-stakes crap games, escapes from the law, glamorous nightclubs and romantic hijinks combine with a memorable score to make Guys and Dolls the perfect musical comedy. Guys and Dolls will be performed in the Triffo Theatre.

Department of Theatre at MacEwan University

Theatre has been a part of MacEwan University for more than 30 years, and our Theatre Arts and Theatre Production programs have earned a reputation for producing passionate professionals who bring the excitement and beauty of theatre to life.

Theatre Arts is a stimulating, intensive actor-training program for people who love the energy of being in front of and connecting with an audience. Theatre Production provides creative inventors with opportunities to explore and see their ideas come to life on the stage.
