November 16, 2014

Fall Convocation celebrates graduates

Edmonton—MacEwan University Fall Convocation ceremonies will see more than 700 students cross to stage at the Winspear to receive their degrees, diplomas an certificates.

During the morning ceremony students from the Faculty of Arts and Science and the Faculty of Health and Community Studies will receive their academic credentials, while the afternoon ceremony will feature students from the School of Business and the Faculty of Fine Arts and Communications.

Fall Convocation also marks a milestone for Cathryn Heslep, vice-president, Student Services, who will be retiring after 25 years of service to the university. “Cathryn is an integral part of our institution,” said David Atkinson, president, MacEwan University. “Over the years as policies and technology has changed Cathryn has helped implement changes that have benefitted our students and improved their educational experience.” Heslep will be speaking during the morning’s ceremony.

Morning Ceremony:
Tuesday, November 18
10:00 a.m.

Afternoon Ceremony:
Tuesday, November 18
3:00 p.m.

Founded in 1971, MacEwan University inspires its students with a powerful combination of academic excellence and personal learning experiences. Offering more than 65 programs including undergraduate degrees, applied degrees, diplomas, certificates, continuing education and corporate training, the university provides a transformative education in a creative, collaborative and supportive learning environment where creativity and innovation thrive. Located in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, MacEwan University offers a unique student experience that opens up diverse pathways for achievement and growth.

For further information, please contact:
David Behary, Media Relations Advisor
780-497-5586
Cell: 780-231-5954
email: beharyd@macewan.ca