Deans’ Council
Terms of Reference

Purpose
The Deans’ Council, established under section 27 of the Post-Secondary Learning Act, provides advice that may be acted upon by the President, the Board of Governors, and General Faculties Council.

The Deans’ Council (DC) brings together the University’s senior academic leaders for regular meetings that focus on institutional progress toward the goals of strategic and operational plans related to academic matters. The Deans’ Council advises the University’s executive team on strategy, policy, and standards. Through the Provost & Vice-President, Academic, items requiring advice, endorsement, and/or approval by Deans’ Council may be brought forward from the Provost’s Group. All discussions and decisions at the Deans’ Council are guided by the mission, vision, and values of the University.

11. To receive semi-annual reports on e-Learning from the Associate Vice-President, Students and Teaching and make recommendations for action by the appropriate bodies.

12. The focus of Deans’ Council is to discuss and address issues and develop new ideas. Informational reports should be distributed in writing prior to the meetings of the Deans’ Council, so that meetings can be used to engage in more strategic discussions and planning.

Office of Record
The Office of the Provost is administratively responsible for the operation of Deans’ Council, including issuing agendas, record keeping, and communication.

Operating Procedures
• Meetings are held as per the schedule established annually.
• The President may delegate the role of the Chair to the Vice-Chair for extended periods of time.
• Membership and attendance at Council meetings may not be delegated.
• Non-members may be invited to attend meeting as expert resources or to present as deemed necessary by the Chair.
• Retreats are held once per academic term.
• All agenda items must be submitted a week in advance of a meeting to the Office of the Provost and must include a briefing note. Late submissions or incomplete briefing notes will not be accepted and will be deferred to the following meeting.
• Agenda items being brought forward from the Provost’s Group must be approved by the Provost & Vice President, Academic.
• Decision and approval is by consensus; however, a vote may be taken and recorded at the request of the Chair.
• Decisions and action items are recorded after each meeting on an action/decision log and will be distributed by the Chair. Decisions and action items made at each meeting will be monitored and maintained by the Chair as a complete record.
• The Provost & Vice President, Academic shall provide quarterly reports to the Board of Governors and the General Faculties Council.

Amendment, Modification or Variation
Deans’ Council will review its Terms of Reference every twelve (12) months to assess membership, strategic and operational effectiveness, and alignment with Executive Council.
