April 14, 2015

A Proper Stew: 2015 Fine Art graduates exhibition

Edmonton—Graduating students from MacEwan University’s Fine Art program will be showcasing their work to the public at the Centre for Arts and Communications. The exhibition will include drawing, painting, sculpture, video, digital images, mixed media, sound art, installation art, and photo works.

The exhibition is often the pinnacle moment for art students and a wonderful opportunity to showcase their artwork to the public. It is also a crucial component in learning about one of the most important aspects of an artist’s professional practice – exhibiting one’s work.

“Students learn that their work does not end with finishing a piece in the studio,” said Leslie Sharpe, Chair, Fine Art program. “The exhibition allows the students to understand the entire process of preparing and exhibiting art, from selecting and preparing work for jury selection, to all the behind the scenes work involved in setting up and maintaining an exhibition.”

When: Monday, April 20 – Thursday, April 23
Time: 11:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. (each day)
Where: Galleries 106 & 109
Centre for the Arts and Communications (10045-156 street)

Founded in 1971, MacEwan University inspires its students with a powerful combination of academic excellence and personal learning experiences. Offering more than 65 programs including undergraduate degrees, applied degrees, diplomas, certificates, continuing education and corporate training, the university provides a transformative education in a creative, collaborative and supportive learning environment where creativity and innovation thrive. Located in Edmonton, Alberta Canada, MacEwan University offers a unique student experience that opens up diverse pathways for achievement and growth.

For further information, please contact:
David Beharry, Media Relations Advisor
780-497-5586
Cell: 780-231-5954
e-mail: beharryd@macewan.ca
Get MacEwan University news delivered to your inbox. Sign up for our weekly e-newsletter