February 3, 2014

Global Awareness Week: Inspiration to Action

Edmonton – MacEwan University Global Awareness Week will feature a variety of keynote speakers discussing issues that impact our international community. Global Awareness Week is a collaboration between MacEwan International and the Students’ Association of MacEwan University.

The goal of the week is to inspire students to become more active and informed about global issues and to celebrate diversity and multiculturalism.

During February 3 – 7 students will have an opportunity to hear speakers discussing issues related to global health, environmental issues and higher education.

Dr. Rick Lewis, Director of MacEwan International will share his experiences of travelling to more than 20 countries. He will discuss some of the key things that he has learned with respect to human and natural history.

For more information about the speakers and the full schedule of events please visit:

www.macewan.ca/gaw

Founded in 1971, MacEwan University inspires its students with a powerful combination of academic excellence and personal learning experiences. Offering more than 65 programs including undergraduate degrees, applied degrees, diplomas, certificates, continuing education and corporate training, the university provides a transformative education in a creative, collaborative and supportive learning environment where creativity and innovation thrive. Located in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, MacEwan University offers a unique student experience that opens up diverse pathways for achievement and growth.

For further information, please contact:
David Beharry, Media Relations Advisor
780 497-5586
Cell: 780231-5954
e-mail: beharryd@macewan.ca