MacEwan University’s Mad Hatter’s Gala hits the Casino

Edmonton – MacEwan University will recreate the romance and luxury of the Principality of Monaco during the 29th annual Mad Hatter’s Gala, an evening featuring stunning Mediterranean glamour and sumptuous cuisine. Monaco has a rich sporting and cultural history, and is home to the Formula One Grand Prix, the Tennis Masters, Opera Garnier, Spring Art Festival, the Monte Carlo Ballet, and the Monte Carlo Philharmonic Orchestra.

This year’s Honorary Mad Hatters are Jill Didow of REALTORS Community Foundation and Greg Christenson of Christenson Developments. Didow and Christenson are longtime MacEwan University supporters and gala attendees.

The event, known for its guests’ incredible hats, supports scholarships, bursaries, and student awards. “Students are Alberta’s future and will be the key contributors to our economy,” said Didow. “They are the next generation of scientists, entrepreneurs, health care workers, and musicians,” she added.
