April 23, 2013

MacEwan University’s new Dean of Arts and Science

Edmonton—MacEwan University is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Craig Monk to the position of Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Science. Dr. Monk will be joining the University on July 1, 2013.

Dr. Monk is currently a Jackson Brothers Visiting Fellow at the Beinecke Library, Yale University. He is a Professor in the Department of English at the University of Lethbridge and most recently held the position of Associate Dean, Faculty of Arts and Science. Previously, he served there as Assistant Dean (Students).

“Dr. Monk brings broad administrative experience as well as significant teaching experience and scholarly activity to the position of Dean,” said David Atkinson, President, MacEwan University.

He received the University of Lethbridge’s distinguished teaching award in 2007 and, since 2010, he has been co-editor of American Periodicals, the journal of the Research Society for American Periodicals. Writing the Lost Generation, his study of expatriate American autobiography, was published by the University of Iowa Press in 2008.

He brings to MacEwan University a Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council Insight grant, in support of his teaching and research of modernist little magazines. He earned Doctor of Philosophy and Master of Studies degrees from Oxford University, and he has a Master of Arts from the University of Western Ontario and a Bachelor of Arts, Honours, from Memorial University of Newfoundland.

Founded in 1971, MacEwan University is a comprehensive university offering more than 65 programs including undergraduate degrees, applied degrees, diplomas, certificates, continuing education and corporate training. Its philosophy of inspiring minds, academic excellence, and providing career opportunities continues to be its guide as it serves the educational needs of students across Alberta, Canada and the world.

MacEwan University combines a first-class education with an extraordinary student experience.

For further information, please contact:
David Beharry, Media Relations Advisor
(780) 497-5586
Cell: (780) 231-5954
email: beharryd@macewan.ca